

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

May 4, 2021

Piedmont Federal Savings Bank continues to monitor developments related to Coronavirus (COVID-19) in coordination with local, state and federal agencies and we want to keep you informed. The health and safety of our customers and teammates is our top priority. We are committed to providing you with uninterrupted access to financial services and your money.

Our branch lobbies are now open. We will continue social distancing as well as using PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) such as masks etc. Our drive-thrus will continue to open at 8:30am. Our normal lobby hours will be from 9:00 to 5:00 Monday through Thursday and 9:00 to 6:00 on Fridays.

The Coronavirus Aid and Economic Security Act (CARES)

The Coronavirus Aid and Economic Security Act (CARES) was signed into law on Friday, March 27, 2020 and provides relief for individuals and businesses. Provisions include expanded unemployment insurance, money allocated for the paycheck protection program, which helps small businesses make payroll and cover other expenses, as well as taxpayer recovery rebates. Click here for more information on CARES.

Please be advised that the federal income tax filing deadline for 2020 has been extended to May 17, 2021. This only applies to filing returns and paying federal taxes. The deadline for Traditional, Roth, CESA and HSA contributions for 2020 has also been extended to May 17, 2021.

Piedmont Federal remains open even during a shelter-in-place or stay home order.

As a bank, Piedmont Federal is considered a critical industry and remains open to serve customers. Thank you for your patience as wait times at our drive-thrus have increased due to greater volume and several teammates being assigned to other locations to assist customers.

Piedmont Federal has a plan and is ready.

Similar to other businesses in our community, we may experience situations that could cause various degrees of disruption to normal business. Piedmont Federal is a federally-insured financial institution, with a comprehensive Business Continuity Plan to ensure we are able to maintain operations, even during a crisis. We are carefully monitoring the evolving situation, with our team ready to respond as conditions change. Piedmont Federal is financially strong, well-capitalized and has the ability to withstand adverse economic circumstances.
